President’s Report
President Rao touched on the issue of compensation and stressed that the issue has and will remain on the forefront of conversations between Dr. Rao, Bill Decatur and John Wiencek. The budget model conversation continues to take place on campus. Dr. Rao said there are heavy investments that need to be made now, but we have to make sure we have a tighter link between the mission and vision of the organization and making sure we have the resources to support the university appropriately.

Dr. Rao also noted the many advancements that have been made over the past 5 1/2 years. For example, the Division for Inclusive Excellence was established and we have seen advancements and changes in development since Marti Heil has come on board. He also stressed that we need to have a fair share of infrastructure as a research institution. Part of where we are lacking is with the total square footage available.

Finally, Dr. Rao noted the search for a new provost and asked that everyone provide feedback because it is important to know what people in the campus community think. Ultimately, this will be someone with whom we all have a relationship with.
